

DIVERSITY & INCLUSION IN THE LEGAL PROFESSION:

EXCHANGING IDEAS, SHARING EXPERIENCES, AND DEVELOPING A STRATEGY FOR EUROPE

WHEN: 4 December 2018, 10:00-18:00
WHERE: Cercle de Lorraine
Place Poelaert 6,
1000 Bruxelles, Belgium

As the legal profession becomes increasingly globalized issues of diversity and inclusion among lawyers are also becoming increasingly global.

JOIN US FOR AN INTERACTIVE EXPLORATION OF HOW TO ADVANCE DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION IN THE LEGAL PROFESSION IN EUROPE:

- What does “diversity and inclusion in the legal profession” look like in Europe and why does it matter?
- Are race, ethnicity, disabilities, class/social mobility, religion or generational differences relevant, acceptable, or comfortable components to diversity and inclusion in the legal profession Europe?
- How can the legal profession in Europe reconcile global concepts about, and client demands for, diversity and inclusion with its own structures, professional constructs, and cultural norms?
- How can the profession work together to advance diversity and inclusion and better mirror the communities it serves?